

At Raveningham, near Loddon.

On Tuesday, October 2nd,
By direction of the Executors of the late Mr. GEORGE SHARDALOW, deceased,

II Young, powerful, and active Suffolk Cart Horses,
Promising Filly Foal,
Bay Pony,
100 Capital Fat Shearling Sheep,
4 Swine,
40 Fowls;
4 road, harvest, and straw waggons, 5 three-quarter-load tumbrils, pony gig and harness, 16-coulter corn drill by Garrett and Sons, new two years since; turnip drill, strong cultivator in wood frame, with fore-gallows and wheels, Northumberland and 4 patent foot ploughs and appendages, 3-horse, 2-horse, and jointed rolls, 6 gangs of harrows and pullingtrees, harrow sledge, Holmes's improved horse rake, horse hoe for 10-furrow work, water cask on frame and wheels, Cubitt's patent iron water cistern with carriage, 18 bullock and 3 square hay bins, 8 covered sheep troughs, stacking and short ladders, Harper's chaff cutter and horse works, oilcake crusher, weighing machine and weights, 8 iron fold hurdles, 3 large water tubs, 20 sets of team and plough harness, the usual assortment of hand tools, and numerous other effects.

Also a portion of the neat and useful Household Furniture, including mahogany dining tables with extra leaves, sets of chairs, fenders, fireirons, 30-hour clock, bedsteads, 3 featherbeds and bedding, wardrobe, chests of drawers, mangle with rollers complete, Kidderminster and other carpets, an assortment of china, glass, and earthenware, culinary requisites and general domestic effects.

Sale to commence with the Farming Stock at Twelve o'clock precisely.

The late Mr. SHARDALOW's well-known judgment and celebrity as a keeper and breeder of FIRST-CLASS CART HORSES have long placed him in a pre-eminent position in this department of Farming, and it is therefore necessary only for the Auctioneers to remark, that several of the animals comprised in this sale will be found equal in size and symmetry, endurance, and freedom in their work, to any that may be offered to public competition in the two counties during the ensuing Michaelmas.

Clipped By:

cliff_shardalow
Sat, Feb 20, 2021