

CAPPELLI

JOAN KATHLEEN

Born Feb. 20, 1925 to Henry and Emma Shardalow of Paddington, London, England. Married to Albert Cappelli for 70 years. Survived by their 5 children Gail, Allan (Rosemary), Craig, Karen (Richard Steiger) and Christopher (Dawn), 9 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. Joan served as Corporal in the RAF in World War II after her parents and sister, Marie, were killed in the London Blitz. She met and married her American Army Paratrooper in Nov. 1946 in London. Coming to the USA by herself on a converted troop ship with other war brides, she was met in NYC by her mother-in-law and sister-in-law and brought back to Devon. Living in Devon and Stafford areas, Albert ran a successful Carpenter/Contracting business while Joan ran the office and was a stay-at-home mom. After retiring, they became "snowbirds", staying in Florida during the Fall/Winter months. Albert passed away in December at the Coatesville VA Hospital. A Memorial Mass for Joan and Albert will be held at Our Lady of the Assumption RC Church in Stafford at 10 A.M. on Thurs.
