

To be SOLD by AUCTION
By THOMAS MILLER,
On TUESDAY the 1st day of August next, between the hours of Two and Four o'clock in the afternoon, at the WHITE SWAN in Loddon, in Norfolk,
AN Estate (late of Mr. William Pye, deceased) situate in Norton Sublicors in Norfolk; consisting of a dwelling-house, lately rebuilt, barn, stables, and other outhouses, about 12 acres of rich inclosed meadow and arable land, some alder carrs, two very extensive doles, and a right of commonage on Norton common, now in the occupation of Edward Shardelow, at the yearly rent of 20^l.10^s.
N. B. Norton common is supposed to contain near 1000 acres, and to be very capable of draining and great improvement. For particulars enquire of Mr. Jermyn, attorney at Haleworth in Suffolk, or of Mr. Daniel Mayer, at Mundham near Loddon.

Clipped By:

cliff_shardalow
Sun, Feb 14, 2021