

TAKES OVER LOCHNER PRINTERY AT AUBURN TO-DAY.

AUBURN, Ind., March 1.—Lew Shardelow, who last week purchased the Lochner Quick Printery from Mr. Lochner, will assume charge of the business to-morrow morning. Mr. Shardelow formerly resided at Farm-land and for eight years was employed on the Enterprise at that place. Miss Rena Purviance, who has been employed in the office for several years, will remain with the new firm. She is a printer of exceptional ability and capable of turning out the highest grade of platten press work.

Mr. Lochner has entered the employ of the Auburn Automobile company and will likewise enter on his new duties on Monday.

Clipped By:

cliff_shardalow
Sun, Feb 14, 2021