

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shardelow celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary last evening at their cozy home, on Locust street. About 75 of their friends enjoyed a pleasant evening with cards. Mr. Dan Shardelow, with his graphophone, afforded much amusement. Progressive euchre was enjoyed by all. The prizes were handsome. The first ladies' prize, four hand-painted dishes, was won by Mrs. H. Helwager. The second ladies' prize, two hand painted bottles, Miss Bessie Haber, while Mrs. L. Daniels will eat "ketchup" as her booby. The first gentlemen's prize, a handsome cuspador, by Mr. Scott Zellers; second gentlemen's prize, box of cigars, Mr. Fred Orput, and Mr. H. Hendrickson can play "for keeps" with the little boys in his neighborhood for some time. After the games, ice cream and cake were served, and much enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Shardelow received many presents, among which were two handsome rockers from Mr. Shardelow's associates at the Heathman Bakery Co. The guests departed at a late hour, hoping to celebrate many anniversaries with their guests.

Clipped By:

cliff_shardalow
Mon, Feb 15, 2021