SHARDELOW SEGERSON

Appointment of D. A. Shardelow as assistant district sales manager of Republic Steel Corporation's Detroit sales office has been announced by L. S. Hamaker, general manager of sales.

Mr. Shardelow joins the staff of the Detroit sales office, one of Republic's largest and most important, after having served as district sales manager in Indianapolis ten years.

Succeeding Mr. Shardelow in Indianapolis will be John N. Segerson, who has been connected with the Indianapolis sales district 20 years in various sales capacities.

Mr. Shardelow was born in Dayton, and graduated from Dayton Steele High School and Miami University. Prior to joining Republic, he was employed as purchasing agent of the Dayton Malleable Iron Company.

Mr. Segerson is a native of Chicago, where he attended St. Patrick High School and Walton Business College. He was first employed by Republic in 1929 as a clerk in the Chicago sales office.
