

Teen-Agers Take Over at Highland for Dance

By MARY WEINBERG, The News Staff Writer

Highland Country Club will be turned over to the teen-age sons and daughters tonight for their big event of the season, the Junior Jump. While their parents remain at home, the high school group will escort their guests to the club for an evening of dancing, to be climaxed by a supper served at midnight.

Buddy Beck and his orchestra from the University of Illinois campus will provide the music for the dance. One corner of the dance floor will be transformed into a coke bar where snacks will be served all evening.

Chaperons for the evening will include Mr. and Mrs. Finley L. Fisbeck, cochairmen of the entertainment committee and who are winding up their year's program of activities this month. Other members of the chaperone group will be Messrs. and Mesdames Edwin F. Sullivan, William J. Mooney, Jr., Frank E. McKinney and Karl Johnson.

Among those who have made plans to attend the dance is Diana Fisbeck, who will attend with a group of friends which will include the Misses Joannie Burns, Patty Ellig, Babs Blackburn, Jane Adler, Nancy Lewis, Donna Barton, Nancy Flora and Janet Brucker and Jim Gerard, Ward Walker, Jim Harris, Tom Perine, Barrett Woodsmall, Don J. Thomas, John O'Hara, Bob Murray and Jack Northrup.

Edward Gass, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gass, will have in his party Martin McDermott, Catherine Hughes, James Baltan, Beverly Segel and Joan Herrmann. Edward's sister, Patricia Gass, will have as her guest James Norman.

Another Highland son, L. D. Foster, Jr., will have in his party Rachael Boys, Don Smith and Mary Ellen Burt. George and Joe Desautel, sons of the Leon Desautels, who will be cochairmen of the entertainment committee next year, will attend the dance with a group escorted by John Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dwight Peterson. Other members of the group will be

Lynn Boatman, William Shardalow, Donald Morris, Mary Garstang, Tom Surber, Eileen Clifton and Beverly Bryan.

Charles Patrick, nephew of Warren C. Bevington, president of Highland Country Club, and Mrs. Bevington, will have as his guest Carol Rogers. Glenna Jean Mohlenkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Mohlenkamp, will be escorted to the dance by Bill Johnson. Carol Foster, daughter of the Dallas Fosters; Shirley Consodine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Consodine, and Mary Ann Sullivan, daughter of the Edwin F. Sullivans, will be hostesses to a group of their young friends.

Genung Lecture Reservations Made

A number of early reservations have been listed for the luncheon and illustrated lecture to be given at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Propylaeum by Mrs. Clara Genung. Her topic is "Journey to Viking Land." Mrs. James B. Nelson and Mrs. James M. Ogden will pour.

Reservations include those of Mesdames J. R. Lynn, J. R. Carr, Harry Pritchard, H. J. Berry, T. R. Lyda, J. C. Adams, LeRoy Kohler, John H. Toy, E. E. Christena, Ethel Hemingway, C. P. Cartwright, Clarence Dicks, Harry B. Goode, George B. Schley, Giles Smith, O. F. Davis, O. L. Miller, Edward S. Brown and Miss Mary Sullivan and Miss Emma Claypool.

William dancing

Clipped By:

cliff_shardalow
Fri, Feb 12, 2021